

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

The Holiday Season is upon us and from me to you all I would like to wish you all a very Happy Healthy Family and Friend filled Holiday Season!! This month we got back to our core value of continuing education for our professional members with a panel discussion on Safety at the Richmond Convention Center. I was not able to attend this event as I had previous engagement that I had to attend but from what I heard it was a good time by all and some great information shared. As always thanks to our programs team for all their hard work to get this done. The education component of what we are about is something that we would like to really grow our offerings in, so please if you have an expert or an idea of a topics that will help our value to our professional don't hesitate to find anyone on the board and share those ideas.

As we now come to the end of 2021 we as usual turn our focus to celebration of yet another crazy year! From thoughts that maybe we are done with covid to wait a second its back, we have met those ebbs and flows head on and we all deserve a little celebration. We hope to see everyone on Dec. 14 back at the Corrugated Box Building for our Annual holiday party.

As always Ashley Hawks-Medlin lives a good party and is hard at work with all the details to ensure a great evening. See you all soon!

Our programs team is always open to any new ideas for events and facilities to possibly tour so please reach out to Allen or Ashley with your ideas.

As always thank you all for your support and contributions to our group. We look forward to seeing everyone in December!

Chad Bishop

CFM EDUCATIONAL EVENT: Security Best Practices in a Post-COVID Workplace

The Educational event was held on a special date, Tuesday, November 16th from 4pm-6pm at Greater Richmond Convention Center.*

“Security Best Practices in a Post COVID Workplace” was a worthwhile way to spend our afternoon on Tuesday 11/16. The panel format proved to be quite useful in discussing a broad range of issues related to building security. There was even a Live Q&A session from the audience at the end of the session, along with a few demonstration videos of new security technology!

Thank you to our subject matter experts that participated on the panel, it was truly a good variety of industry professionals:

- Tom Wright with Allegion, door hardware manufacturer
- Mark Pike with Johnson Controls, security systems integrator
- Joel Skrdla with UNOS, Security Technology Manager
- Andrew Keys with Motorola Solutions, security camera/software manufacturer
- Steven Duke with Security 101, security systems integrator
- Chuck Lewis with Quest Security Group, security consultant and private investigator

We are always looking for suggestions on future educational seminar topics, so please reach out to us if you have any ideas!

About IFMA's World Workplace® October 26-28, 2021

I'm really thankful I got to have this experience, it was much larger than I could have ever imagined. The amount of technology available today that isn't regularly spoken about in the field is crazy. I attended multiple seminars. The three I enjoyed the most were focused on getting the most out of a RFP with your procurement team by Dr. Dean Kashiwagi, (which I have already seen the benefits of), another on writing clear SOWs and returning to workplace, post COVID practices. These were just the ones I valued the most. Some of the others I attended were informative but did not leave a lasting impression like the ones mentioned. Some of the innovative products displayed at the Expo Hall I have already purchased for my facility since returning.

I got to spend some time with Chad and Brian as well as some other people from all over the country, building some new relationships and I appreciate that opportunity as well. We got to witness a costume party, with all sorts of creative costumes, you could clearly tell who had to go through TSA and who drove to the event. There were also alligators in the atrium, It's the first time I've ever attended an event like this and I will be on the heels of Virginia Housing to send me again next year! Thank you again!
