

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

Hello All!

What a busy month July has been for our chapter. Our first event of the month was our monthly meeting at the VCU STEM building. VCU just keeps growing and seeing the increased capacity for students to participate in labs and the flexibility intentionally designed into the space gets me excited about where they are heading. It was also nice to meet with you all at Capital Ale House after the tour.

The second event of the month was a social event at the Counting Crows and Dashboard Confessional concert at The Meadow Event Park. Thank you ServePro for getting those tickets and allowing us into your hospitality tent. I couldn't make it but I heard it was a lot of fun.

Looking forward, this month we will get to tour Berkshire Hathaway Energy on Tuesday, August 8th. This will be a great opportunity to get a behind the scenes tour of their new facility in Innsbrook. Also, the Golf Tournament is fast approaching so mark you calendars for Monday October 2nd. Get your foursome signed up and come join us for a great event at Hermitage Country Club.

Thank you as always for supporting IFMA RVA.

Brian

Professional Member Spotlight

Maria O’Callaghan-Cassidy, MSOD, CFM, SFP

Job Title and Company: Senior Associate Vice President Campus Operations, University of Richmond

How did you first become interested in Facility Management?

Like many others in the field, facility and operations management found me because I was comfortable wearing many hats; never backed away from a challenge and was willing to evaluate, learn and own outcomes. Facilities Management is never boring and you are on the front line supporting the mission of your organization.

What’s one major challenge you’ve faced while working in FM and how did you overcome it?

A lack of female mentorship in the FM industry is a significant challenge. Throughout my career I have actively sought out mentors and have been lucky to find many. But most organizations do not have a clear path for mentorship. Several studies released in the past few years showed that only 23.3% of all FM’s in the United States are women. These women received, on average, 93% of what men earned. Currently, the percentage of women in executive level roles is under 8%. With a record number of women dropping out of the workforce and not planning to return post-pandemic there is an immediate need for accessible, structured female mentorship and networking in the FM field.

What has been the most rewarding aspect of your job?

Working with and for remarkable organizations, cultivating strong professional relationships, mentoring and developing resilient teams. It always comes down to people and I have been blessed to have been associated with, supported and challenged by amazing humans in my career.

Are there any upcoming trends in FM that you are particularly interested in and why?

It is a rejuvenating yet challenging time to be an FM. The proliferation of technology in our industry provides us with volumes of data that can be analyzed and used to guide us forward. Our task will be to develop standards around how best to use this information. We are the architects of the office of the future – and how we plan space, infrastructure, accessibility and flexibility will affect productivity and longevity of organizations. With a renewed focus on green processes such as minimizing energy and water use as well as material waste, we can reduce negative impacts on the environment that will affect generations to come.

What advice would you give to someone new to FM or looking to get into the field?

Practice active listening! Never become complacent and continuously strive for excellence. Welcome all feedback – the good, the bad and the ugly. Be bold and get obsessed with learning!

From your perspective, what are the benefits of belonging to a professional community like IFMA?

As a member of IFMA for over two decades, I can honestly say that it has helped shape my career. Vendor partnerships, the sharing of best practices, educational opportunities and the numerous resources support my planning and communication of timely, relevant and accurate information with my organization.

AUGUST MEMBERSHIP MEETING

WHEN: TUESDAY, AUGUST 8th 5:30pm-7:30pm

LOCATION: BERKSHIRE HATHAWAY ENERGY (BHE GT&S)

10700 Capitol One Way, Glen Allen, VA 23060

Join us for a tour of, IFMA's own, Trent Dickson's new facility in Innsbrook. BHE GT&S, parent company to many energy, transmission, and storage companies, acquired all of Dominion Energy's natural gas assets in 2020. Having over 1600 employees and 5400 miles of transmission line and 656 billion cubic feet of storage, BHE GT&S needed a new place to call home and finally landed at the buildings formally known as Knolls 4 & 5 in Innsbrook. Since their purchase in 2020, the company has been transforming the buildings with a $17 million renovation, set to complete in September. Come tour this building before the employees move in and get your chance to see it behind the scenes. We had so much fun at our after-event last month that we will be re-imagining our happy hour after the tour right up the street at the Cox Road Innsbrook Capital Ale House in the "Up Bar." Come join us for the tour then meander over at 6:30 to have drinks and appetizers!

If you'd like the opportunity to showcase your company during the event by becoming a meeting Bronze Sponsor, please reach out to Brian Workman at bworkman@moii.com.

OUR STORY

The Budd Group's story starts in 1963, the year Richard Budd purchased a struggling janitorial supply company in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Under Budd's guidance and leadership, the company eliminated its debt in four years and began a pattern of steady, customer-focused growth that continues today.

In the 1970s, The Budd Group expanded into carefully chosen markets, adding janitorial, maintenance, and landscaping services to our lines of business. Until the late 1980s, nearly all of the company's revenue came from customers in North Carolina, but The Budd Group made a pivotal turn in 1988 by broadening and diversifying its operations across the entire Southeast.

Today, The Budd Group employs thousands of dedicated associates and delivers custom facility solutions to an extensive range of industries across the Southeast.

MISSION

The Budd Group strives to be a God-honoring company of excellence that safely delivers facility support solutions to meet our customers' needs, offers development opportunities for our employees, provides growing value for our shareholders and contributes to our community.

THE MAKE IT RIGHT GUARANTEE

Since 1963, our company's core values have been defined by the words of our founder, Richard Budd:

"Do what you say you're going to do."

This simple philosophy is at the heart of our guarantee to every customer we serve. We will meet or exceed your expectations in the delivery of high quality facility support solutions. If we do not deliver the contracted services to your satisfaction, we will Make It Right.
